

Key Question

Year 2
Term 1 b
(Sustainable Goal links:

Expressive Arts

Exploration through and of the Expressive Arts deepens our artistic knowledge and contributes to our understanding of identities, cultures and societies.

African elephant patterned elephants project.

Final product: African elephant canvas

American Specialist Teacher for Specials

Humanities

Human societies are complex and diverse and are shaped by human actions and beliefs.

Geographical comparison of a non European country (AFRICA) to the United Kingdom.

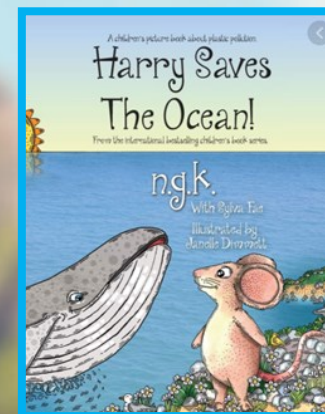

Maths

The number system is used to represent and compare relationships between numbers and quantities.

Number: Addition and subtraction

Measurement: Money

Number: Multiplication and division

Literacy, Language and Communication

Literature fires imaginations and inspires creativity.

Class anchor book: Don't let them disappear

Learners who speak and write effectively are prepared to play a full part in life and work

Opportunities to write and present through exploration of quality texts and talk for writing approach:

Writing to entertain - Narrative: Little red riding hood

Writing to inform – Letters about animal endangerment and conservation

Writing to entertain - Christmas Poetry

Learning about identity and culture through languages prepares learners to be citizens of the world.

Specialist lessons: EAL, French, German

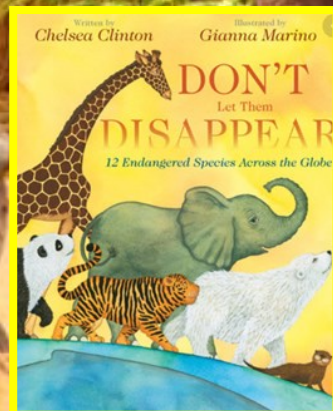

Science and Technology

Understanding the atomic nature of matter and how it shapes the world.

Living things and their habitats
(both year 2 units)

Cross curricular links with Literacy and Geography topic for Life on land and Life below the water.

Habitats of African Animals: linked to endangered animals (layering in knowledge for Innovation)

Taking Action Planned:

Run from extinction. A charity run in Fancy dress dressed as an endangered animal raising funds for Tusk.org.

External Visitors: Katie Tunn: Ocean environmentalist

Health and Well-being

Healthy relationships are fundamental to our sense of belonging and well-being.