

Expressive Arts

Exploration through and of the Expressive Arts deepens our artistic knowledge and contributes to our understanding of identities, cultures and societies.

Design a Totem pole

Specialist Teacher for Specials

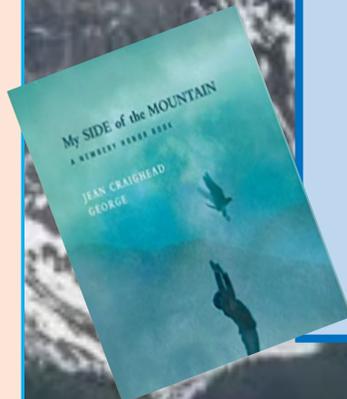

Science and Technology

The world around us is full of living things which depend on each other for survival.

Living things and their habitats

Describe how living things are classified into broad groups according to common observable characteristics and based on similarities and differences, including microorganisms, plants and animals

Give reasons for classifying plants and animals based on specific characteristics.

Health and Well-being

Our decision making impacts on the quality of our lives and the lives of others.

Dreams and goals

Personal learning goals, in and out of school, Making a difference in the world, Motivation, Recognising Achievements

Forest School—valuing and enjoying our natural environment

Maths

The number system is used to represent and compare relationships between numbers and quantities.

Fractions

equivalent, simplify, add and subtract, multiply and divide

Geometry

Position and Direction, Translation and Reflection

Number

Decimals and Percentages

Year 5/6

Term 2

North America

Key Question -

How can mankind's actions and values help support and preserve areas of natural beauty and why is this important?

Sustainable goal 11 -

Sustainable cities and Communities

Taking Action

Inquiry approach will lead to an action driven by the Children. For example, plant a tree—Woodland Trust initiative

Humanities

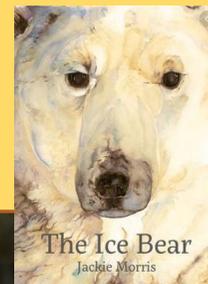

Our natural world is diverse and dynamic, influenced by physical processes and human actions.

Mapping of North America—mountains, main cities, National Parks

Impact of mankind on natural environments

Values of Indigenous communities to preserve such environments

Cause and effect—reintroduction of the wolf to Yellowstone

Computing

Coding

Literacy, Language and Communication

Literature fires imaginations and inspires creativity.

Class novel:

My Side of the Mountain

Learners who speak and write effectively are prepared to play a full part in life and work

Opportunities to write and present through exploration of quality texts and talk for writing approach:

To entertain and inform - narrative showing the spirituality of wildlife as believed by Native Americans - setting description and character voice. Model text to be driven by The Ice Bear by J Morris; innovate to animal of choice from inquiry

To discuss - the need to preserve areas of natural beauty

Poetry: Short burst poem—poem into narrative
Judge Softly by MT Lathrap

Learning about identity and culture through languages prepares learners to be citizens of the world

Specialist lessons:

EAL, French, German daily options