

Communication and Language

Story Talk for Writing vocab: once upon a time, one night, suddenly, finally, the end

Descriptive words for describing owls and feathers

Listen to Owl Babies Big Book (T for W) and non-fiction books about winter and survival

Daily Partner language

PSE

Jigsaw Unit Celebrating Difference

Looking after each other, coping with being scared

Likes and dislikes, being good at

Being grateful for...

Physical Development

Handwriting individual letters on lines

Gross motor, moving like animals, animal dances

Fine motor, knots and gripping ropes

Year Reception

Term Autumn 2 Number One

Big Idea The world around us is full of living things which depend on each other for survival.

Key Question What do the animals do in the cold?

Sustainable Goal

Literacy

Write report on owls and other forest animals in winter

Write/ map Owl Babies and class retell of Owl Babies to video

Write CVC words and start ph 3 digraphs

On-going L+S in groups ph 2 and 3

Mathematics

WRM Light and Dark

Deep understanding of 1 to 5 and their composition

Properties of circles and triangles

Capacity and weight

Understanding The World

Find out about the types of homes animals need in winter in the forest.

Talk about seasonal change.

Expressive Arts

Draw pictures of animals that hibernate and animals that do not

Make animal hibernation homes in the forest for lizards/salamanders, hedgehogs, bugs, spiders

Try out hibernation in the animal den in role play

Other Subjects

Go into the forest to look for animal homes and signs of Autumn and winter. Photos

Music – steady beat games, Autumn songs