

Hi Everyone

I have had the pleasure of listening to your brilliant videos several times. I am so impressed with each of you as you are speaking from your hearts as well as your heads. This combination makes what you say so impactful. You have thought so deeply about values and how to show them in your lives. If anyone wants to know why values are so important in our lives, then your videos would help them to understand that they are the bedrock of education that helps students to find meaning and purpose for their lives, which are directed by positive human values.

I have asked Mrs. Wood's permission to use the videos at conferences and on training courses. I think they are such a powerful medium for inspiring others to adopt a values-based way of living.

I want each of you to know that I am so very proud of you and what you have achieved in these videos. Your words are authentic and so impactful, demonstrating what an excellent education you are receiving at AF North. I often am asked to speak to leaders from all walks of life about values and I will be using your videos to inspire them!

Thank you from the bottom of my heart - you are all stars!

Warm wishes
Neil
