

Expressive Arts

Exploration through and of the Expressive Arts deepens our artistic knowledge and contributes to our understanding of identities, cultures and societies

Art—3D Modelling

Pueblo pottery using coil and scrape techniques

Music- Learning to play Ukulele

Play and perform simple melodies

PE -Swimming (tbc)

Gymnastics

Transfer weight. Combining balance and shape

Science and Technology

Understanding the atomic nature of matter and how it shapes the world

Properties and changes of Materials - and how this affects our Natural World

Design and Technology

Food: Celebrating culture and seasonality— noting air miles and local produce, design and make a dish noting airmiles

Year 5/6

Term 1b

Planet Rescue

How does mankind's consumption and disposal of the world's materials affect our planet?

What can be done to help?

Taking Action

Animation and speech showing impact of careless use/disposal of our materials/resources

Health and Well-being

Healthy relationships are fundamental to our sense of belonging and well-being

Celebrating differences

Maths

The number system is used to represent and compare relationships between numbers and quantities

Four Operations: Short division, long division, order of operations

Fractions: equivalent fractions and simplifying, adding and subtracting fractions, compare and order fractions, converting mixed to improper and improper to mixed

Humanities

Our natural world is diverse and dynamic, influenced by physical processes and human actions.

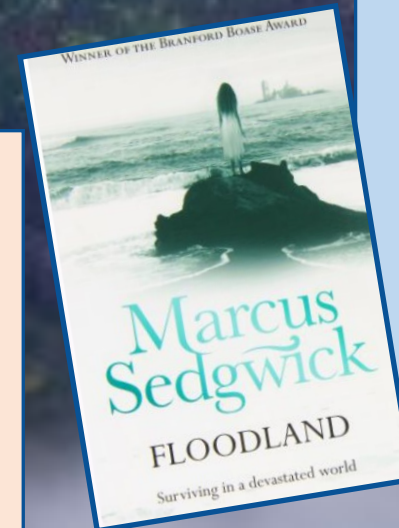

Earth's different Environments

Environments being affected by our use and disposal of materials

Cause and effect— what steps can we take to help?

Computing

Research and Animation

Literacy, Language and Communication

Literature fires imaginations and inspires creativity.

Class book:

Foodland—Marcus Sedgwick

We Are All Greta

Learners who speak and write effectively are prepared to play a full part in life and work

Fiction

Narrative—setting description using passive for effect

Non-fiction:

Persuade/inform speech—How our choices affect the environment (Based on Greta Thunberg speech)

Poetry

Our Planet—Using subordination and future tense

Learning about identity and culture through languages prepares learners to be citizens of the world

Specialist lessons:

EAL, French, German daily options