RE Believing

Human societies are complex and diverse and are shaped by human actions and beliefs.

What do religions say to us when life gets hard?

The concept of resilience, determination and commitment will permeate our studies including having the opportunity to visit the Invictus Games in Dusseldorf. We will link this with the mining industry and the difficulties faced in this region when the mines were closed. How did people recover? What belief systems did they call upon? How did sense of community help? This will also link with the school's yearly Terry Fox run.
